Item V

- 1 Reference is made to the following documents:
D1: WO-A-02 062152
D2: US-A-3 121 635
- 2 The subject-matter of present independent claims 1, 15 and 29 as well as that of present dependent claims 2-5, 8, 10, 17, 22 and 29, is not novel (Art.33 (2) PCT).
- 2.1 D1 anticipates the subject-matter of present claims 1-5, 8, 10, 15, 17, 22 and 29 (see page 5, line 14 - page 7, line 7; examples 1, 3 and 5; claims 1-47 of D1): the pore size range according to present claim 1 is derivable from the tablet dimension and porosity data disclosed in present examples 1 and 3.
- 3 In contrast thereto, none of the documents D1 and D2 discloses a packaged coffee product as claimed in present independent claim 11.
- 4 However, the subject-matter of present independent claim 11 does not involve an inventive step (Art.33 (3) PCT), in regard of the combination (D1+D2) (see page 5, line 14 - page 7, line 7; examples 3 and 5; claims 1-47 of D1; and column 2, lines 1-26; and claims 1-11 of D2), due to the fact that:
a/ the technical problem to be solved by D1 is the same as in the present application (i.e. how to increase the solubility or dispersibility of a tablet in water; see page 2, lines 11-25 of D1 as well as page 7, lines 31-32 of the present description); and b/ the difference (inasmuch as present claim 11 is concerned) between the product of D1 and that of the present invention (i.e. the presence of a moisture resistant material) is found in D2 (said document solves the technical problem of improving the dissolution of coffee tablets too; see column 1, lines 46-72 thereof).
- 5 It does not appear that present dependent claims 6, 7 and 9 (referring back to present independent claim 1) and present dependent claims 16, 18-21 and 23-28 (referring back to present independent claim 15), contain technical features that would establish novelty and / or inventive step for the subject-matter of the respective independent claims.
- 6 Moreover, it does not appear that present dependent claims 12-14 contain technical features that would establish inventive step for the subject-matter of present independent claim 11, as they merely represent trivial design possibilities (e.g. presence of aromatic volatiles in the coffee aroma; see present claim 12) not connected to any unexpected technical effect or advantage.

- 7 The subject-matter of present claims 1-29 is susceptible of industrial application in the field of food industry (Art.33 (4) PCT).
- 8 The applicant's attention is also drawn to the following points:
 - 8.1 Contrary to the requirements of Rule 5.1 (a) (ii) PCT, the relevant background art disclosed in the documents D1-D2 is not mentioned in the description, nor are these documents identified therein.
